Ohio Operators to Confer On Request of House Labor Committee for Strike Parley

Meeting Will Be Held This Afternoon or Tomorrow in Cleveland.

BIG CONCERN REFUSES

Announcement Made Ohio Coal Operators Association Declined Today While President F. L. Keeney of the United Mine Workers Said That Additions to the Union Ranks Increased the Effectiveness of the 700 per cent Shut-down in Union Territory

CLEVELAND, April 5.—A meeting of the Pittsburgh Coal Operators Association of the Central Competitive Field will be called here this afternoon or tomorrow morning to consider the request of Chairman Nolan of the House Labor Committee for a meeting of coal operators and miners in Washington April 10 as the first step in an effort to settle the bituminous coal strike. Michael Gallagher, president of the association, announced this morning.

TOLEDO, April 5.—The Ohio Coal Operators Company, the largest individual coal operating company in Ohio will not be represented in the proposed conference of operators and miners April 10, it was announced here today.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Following up the overtures it has made for settlement of the coal strike the House Committee on Labor continued its hearing on the subject today by considering Attorney General Daugherty's statement of last night outlining for the Administration's hands off policy for the present.

On learning that President Lewis of the United Mine Workers had left the committee called John Moore, legislative representative of the union in Washington.

"Now has there been a time when the United Mine Workers have refused to open negotiations with the Central Competitive Field operators for a new wage scale after April 1 in accordance with their statement?" Moore was asked.

"No sir," he replied. "There never has been such a refusal by the union."

ST. LOUIS, April 5.—The scale committee of the three Illinois coal operators associations will meet in Chicago tomorrow to decide whether they will meet union representatives in Washington April 10 as requested by the House Labor Committee.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—A congressional effort at the settlement of the coal strike particularly as it involves the bituminous fields, was begun Tuesday when Chairman Nolan of the House Labor Committee, was authorized to telegraph invitations to a few of the representative operators and officers of operators associations from the Central Competitive Field to attend a meeting with the miners' union leaders in Washington April 10 and attempt to reach an agreement.

At the same time Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho took occasion to say in the Senate that drastic public action might be demanded and charge the operators with contract breaking in precipitating the strike.

A possible diversion between the views of members of Congress and those of the Administration, however, was seen when Attorney General Daugherty issued a statement reiterating that "the Government is not undertaking to do anything in the present situation of the coal matter declaring that men have a right to quit work and men have a right to employ other men" that the public was not menaced with coal shortage and that it was the duty of local authorities to maintain order.

The Government would not look with favor upon coal price increases, Mr. Daugherty said, adding that he "saw no reason at this time to believe that disorder need be feared" but asserting that the government "will perform what ever may be its duty in the premises in total and state [igenes] cannot maintain peace."

FAYETTE STRIKE CENTER HOLDS TO LOWER REGION

Little Accomplished by Union Outside of Brownsville Section.

BRIDGEPORT IS INVOLVED

Union Organizers Have Deferred Greatest Energy in Section About Republic, With Result That Most Plants There Are Idle, Men Hard to Find

CHARLSTON, W. Va., April 5.—More men were at work in the mines of Southern West Virginia than when the strike was called, coal operators' associations declared today, while President F. L. Keeney of the United Mine Workers said that additions to the union ranks increased the effectiveness of the 700 per cent shut-down in union territory.

The new union mines on the Elk river between Grafton and Oakdale were closed yesterday by a strike of about 250 non-union miners, it was reported to district headquarters, while reports from Marion indicate a stand-off of the union movements in the southern part of that place which is not included in the Miners' list.

Coal miners reported that 16 mines which worked yesterday continued operations today and while no definite reports had been received they know that preparations had been made to open four others.

O. A. Wilson, district officer for the operators' association, said that 10 of the closed mines included mines which had been unable to operate because of lack of market for their coal. The demand for coal instead of increasing has added to less than ever before.

The Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad reported coal holdings yesterday to be more than 100,000 tons. Monday the report covered the New River, Laramie and Big Sandy districts and part of the Kanawha fields.

In the Fairmont district 29 mines are the Monongah division of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad were idle and 10 working part time. Nineteen cars were loaded yesterday and only 50 ordered in today.

Miners Damaged By Bomb Blasts

By Associated Press

BETHANY, W. Va., April 5.—Bombs were exploded in front of the houses of Blinn, Chickasaw and James Spade in the little mining village of Salyers late last night. Troops of the state police with bloodhounds were hurried to the scene and arrested John Eddo and Andrew Hunter, who denied all knowledge of the crime. They are being held.

Chickasaw and Spade are miners who continued work for the Maxwell Coal Company after about one-half the force went out in sympathy with the strike. They are being held.

A very determined effort is being made by the organizers in and around the Brownsville district to organize the miners in the eastern section of the state strike headquarters of the miners in sympathy with the union miners. Many of these meetings are with old results of the mine hoped or some of them produced in sympathy upon the miners two weeks ago in work but in the main it is not holding longer to the speakers. It is giving indication of their intention to take up their job which miners are told they have secured only within the last month or six weeks since the strike began to take effect.

Archie Hart, president of the miners' organization sent into the eastern section strike headquarters of the miners in the eastern section of the state strike headquarters of the miners in sympathy with the union miners. Many of these meetings are with old results of the mine hoped or some of them produced in sympathy upon the miners two weeks ago in work but in the main it is not holding longer to the speakers. It is giving indication of their intention to take up their job which miners are told they have secured only within the last month or six weeks since the strike began to take effect.

The first explosion tipped off the porch of Chickasaw's house and the second reduced a junk Spade's auto mobile which was in front of his house.

TRAITOR TO DIE

Belmont Court Convicts Armand Jeannes of Treason During War

By Associated Press

MONS, Belgium, April 5.—Armand Jeannes was condemned to death by the court here last night for treason and espionage against Belgium and the Allies during the war. He had boasted he was instrumental in bringing about the arrest and execution by the Germans of Edith Cavell, British war nurse, but this charge was not mentioned in the indictment against him.

At the same time Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho took occasion to say in the Senate that drastic public action might be demanded and charge the operators with contract breaking in precipitating the strike.

There was a burst of applause in the courtroom when the sentence was passed and a great crowd outside jeered Jeannes when he was taken to the death cell.

Dinner for Mrs. Morris.

Mr. W. H. Ulend gave a 6 o'clock chicken dinner last evening at his home in West Crawford Avenue in observance of the 70th anniversary of the birth of his mother, Mrs. Margaret Morris. Guests were told 10 persons. His friend who has been unwell was able to enjoy the meal with his others.

Chief of Police J. J. McDonald and Frank Louden, junior, at City Hall removed a number of the old traffic signs this morning. These signs were placed at the time of the enforcement of the old ordinance and in a number of instances conflict with the present law. For this reason they were removed.

MONROEVILLE, W. Va., April 5.—Three persons were burned to death at Woodlawn here late early today when two visitors to a farm house, Mrs. George McBride, 60, and her two grandsons, Alvin and James Doss, were the victims.

Half of Russian Province Doomed to Die From Famine

By Associated Press.
LONDON, April 4.—Fifty per cent of the famine stricken population in the district of Ufa (Southeastern Russia) is doomed to die of hunger and in the Bashkir Republic (Southern Urals region) 30 per cent will undergo a like fate, says report to the American Relief Administration by P. H. Hofstra, of Grand Rapids, Mich., executive for the areas named.

According to Mr. Hofstra, this is a very conservative estimate, being based on figures obtained some time back. Brought up to date, the figures would probably be 25 per cent higher, "even allowing for the full American effort," he says.

Under the feeding program made possible by the American congressional appropriation, an adult receives one Russian ruble, or roughly 34 ounces, of raw corn per day.

In the two areas named, there were 948,885 adult "famine subjects," but only 620,000 portions can be issued. In addition to adults, the Relief Administration was caring on February 15 for 106,778 children in this territory.

The province of Ufa holds at least one-tenth of the total of the famine-stricken people of Russia, says Dr. Semashko, Russian Commissioner of Health, who describes that province as one of the worst of the famine districts.

APPLY SULPHUR ON YOUR ECZEMA SKIN

Costs Little and Overcomes Trouble Almost Over Night.

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It sooths tails to relieve torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

Tarr

TARR, April 3.—David Moore of Scottdale spent Sunday afternoon with friends here.

A meeting of the miners of this district will be held at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the I. O. O. F. Hall. Leaders of the United Mine Workers will be present, and some action is expected to be taken in regard to the present strike.

A bill advertising the Union Supply Company's store for sale has been posted on the building.

Louis Goldinsky, who was arrested for jumping freight and taken to the detention room of the Salvation Army, was released on Tuesday evening. He was on a two-year parole.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—

the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant taste of these tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids on calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why can't the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that hazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loxy" and "heavy." They "clean" clogged brains and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

Divergent Reports From W. Va. Fields

CHARLESTON, W. Va., April 3.—While the scope of the coal strike in union districts throughout West Virginia was clearly defined today, widely divergent opinions marked the non-union's situation. District officers of the United Mine Workers insisted they had made gains in the non-union fields while officials of coal producers associations were as fastiduous that little if any progress had been made.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 5, 1922.

THE SCHOOL LITERARY SOCIETY.
The Perry Township High School has wisely continued a custom which several years ago prevailed in almost every school district of the county. This has been to keep alive the literary society.

Many persons of mature years bear willing testimony to the advantages they gained from participation in those organizations when they were pupils in the schools 20, 30 or more years ago. At that time they flourished more extensively than in recent years when other and perhaps less useful activities have taken their place.

As an agency through which young people can obtain a knowledge of the fundamentals of parliamentary law, which in later years will enable them to fill the position of presiding officer at public gatherings, board meetings and the like, the literary society performed a most useful function. No less valuable has this old time school auxiliary been in affording opportunity for students to acquire experience in debating and other forms of public speaking. It served to stimulate an interest in important current events and encouraged serious study of really vital questions. The influence of this literary society was, on the whole, in the direction of enabling those who took part in the exercises to acquire self-possession and control and greater proficiency in thinking and expressing themselves clearly. These are attainments which are essential to the largest success in any calling.

Where the custom has been abandoned nothing quite so good or useful has been found to take its place and to that extent students of this day and generation are being deprived of a kind of training, the need of which they will find later. Those schools in which the existence of the literary society has been continued may not have time or the inclination to indulge in other and more modern innovations, but they are losing nothing by adhering to what may be termed old-fashioned notions. Measured by the relative value of the old and some of the new the literary society could be restored with great profit to both pupils and the communities in schools where it has been abandoned.

THE STRING CLEAN-UP.
There should really be no necessity to direct public attention to the desirability of all persons engaging in a thorough clean-up of their premises each spring. To most householders such a reminder is not necessary but others apparently wait for the newspapers to jog their memory about the return of the season when this work should be done. The government agencies are always forthcoming in their notices that such-and-such a period is to be set aside for the observance of "Clean-Up Week." This year the week immediately following Easter, which comes on April 18, has been designated for that purpose.

The call this year is made by the State Bureau of Fire Protection, the object of which organization is to reduce the dangers and losses from fires in houses and all kinds of structures. In a statement just issued the bureau declares that the spring housecleaning should be undertaken at this time with more thoroughness than ever before in order to eliminate every hazard which adds to the burden of life by increasing the cost of living and destroying natural and created resources to the extent of millions of dollars annually."

The bureau urges a "thorough clean-up of buildings and premises, removal from attics, cellars and out of the way places, all piles of newspapers, dilapidated furniture, cast-off clothing, old toys, rags and assortments of worthless articles, that never will be used, but in many cases will be the cause of a serious fire, or in case of fire will add to the flames."

The statement asserts there is no reason why every community in the state should not inaugurate a Clean-Up Week as security against loss by carelessness which, it says, is the principal cause of the largest part of the fire waste in the country.

"Local authorities," the statement declares, "can greatly assist in effecting a reduction in fire losses by insisting upon better building regulations by the inspection of theatres, private and public institutions, factories, mills and all property during clean-up week, and the issuing of orders to the correction of conditions found to be of a menacing nature, in cooperation with the citizens and members of fire companies in efforts for the prevention of fires and reduction of the fire waste."

The greater responsibility rests with individuals whom prudence dictates should see that no fire or health hazards are permitted to exist on their premises.

The school tax levy being at the limit allowed by law property owners will be disposed to look astutely at the proposition to revise the county assessments, the temptation in such a form of outdoor sport being to bring the low assessments up to the level of the high rather than sealing the latter down to the former, or striking a happy mean between the two.

Leave it to Perry Township High School to capture its full share of honors in school contests of all kinds.

If Mount Pleasanters like to keep long to feed them garbage that is the kind of a disposal system they will like.

Off the Road

Harrisburg Telegraph.

It is gratifying to note that in the state government's effort to make the highways safe that the State Highway Department is so effectively supporting the work of the State Police by revoking the licenses of persons convicted of driving automobiles while drunk. Since the first of the year 71 per cent of the license revoked have been because the drivers were under the influence of liquor and about the same proportion of persons blacklisted, which means they will get no license for a year or more, as the case may be, were for the same offense. The reason for the different classification is that all of the persons were not caught, but there was evidence against them. The total revocations and blacklisting runs into the scores.

It is not pleasant to contemplate that such a number of persons have been so regardless of their public obligations as to try to run cars while drunk. It is disgraceful that they can get the liquor to get drunk, but even if they do more is the shame that they endanger lives by trying to operate motor vehicles. The time has come when motorists must unite against the drunken driver as they do against the "road hog" and the speed fool. Good order on many a highway is due to the influence of the jaw abiding motorists. And he can help the state officers reduce the dangers and make Pennsylvania highways safer by getting the "souse" off the road.

SACRIFICE.

One gave a purse of minted gold and passed along his way. But he had to give it up to himself at last for game and play. He danced with women fair at night and sang his merry songs. Content that with his yellow gold he'd righted many wrongs.

And one there was who met the poor and bought them meat and bread. And quite forgot their bitter days when once their mouths were fed; He gave it all away, but still returning the gift that could be bought. But what they really hungered for was more than passing thoughts.

A third there was who gave his pence but did not pass alone. He could not turn away from care to join with dance or song;

He knew the misery of the world he felt it day and night.

He never merely seated a wrong, but tried to set it right.

There was in other's poverty a pain which he could feel. The thurs in little children's eyes were keen tomorrow might return with many an ache and gash.

And could not toss a coin to want and blithely travel by.

Best Year in Re-Union Church History Shown in Reports.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Special to The Courier.
MOUNT PLEASANT, April 5.—On Monday evening the annual congregational meeting of the Re-Union Presbyterian Church revealed that in spite of the business depression it had the best year financially in its history. After all expenses were accounted for there remained a balance of nearly $400 in the treasury. For benevolences the church contributed during the year $2,554, which is more than ever before. The election of officers resulted in the selection of S. C. Stevenson as president of the congregation; Dr. W. A. Marsh, secretary; Miss Viola Stevenson, auditor; D. L. George, J. K. Given, H. L. Snyder, J. A. Cooper and Miss Madge Stevenson, trustees. Committees were appointed to plan for the semi-centennial of the church which will be held in April.

Herbs Used in Medicines.

A Manchester, England, paper urges the renewed cultivation of old-fashioned medicinal herbs in English gardens. In the United States they have also gone out of fashion as a feature of the small garden, although they are imported in large quantities from Turkey, India and China, where they are grown purely for commercial purposes, as their medicinal value is recognized by many leading physicians. Tons of medicinal herbs are used annually in the preparation of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most successful medicine for woman's ills. It contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and women afflicted with such ailments should try it—Advertisement.

The Aftermath of Influenza

This is No. 1 of a series of advertisements, prepared by a competent physician, explaining how certain diseases which attack the air passages—such as Pneumonia, Typhus, a Whooping Cough, Measles or even a long continued Cold—often leave these organs in an inflamed, congested state, thus affording a favorable foothold for invading germs. A cold Vicks VapoRub may be of value in this condition.

Your doctor will impress upon you that following recovery from the active stage of influenza, there often remains an inflamed, congested condition of the air passages—throat, larynx, bronchial tubes and lungs.

Frequently the cough hangs on—soreness of the chest persists—you take cold easily and there may be obstinate catarrh. This condition is slow to clear up and if neglected may favor the development of pneumonia, or later on, serious disease of the lungs.

Such cases should continue under the care of their physician—should exercise moderately in the open air—eat plenty of wholesome food—avoid overwork and sudden chills.

Nightly applications of Vicks VapoRub may help nature to complete the process of repair. Because Vicks acts locally by

The Sporting World

Caseys and St. Vincent Primed for Initial Championship Game Tonight

Will Put Greatest Array of Strength on Floor at School Hall.

WHISTLE BLOWS AT 8:30

By James M. Briscoli
Sporting Editor

The initial clash to determine the floor championship of Connellsville will be played tonight at the Parochial Hall when the Casey Club and St. Vincent teams, tied for first place in the City League, will meet in the first game of a series of three.

The two outfits will stage what is looked forward to as one of the greatest meetings of the season. In the league game between these two teams, the Casey Club suffered its only defeat, and that by one point after a five minute extra period had been played.

Manager McGarry of the Lelsenring outfit expresses every confidence in the ability of his team, but he realizes he is going against a powerful combination. Local fans especially the out and out backers of the purple and white team, are expecting the Caseys to take two straight games, but then the Caseys were also expected to win the league game pocketed by St. Vincent.

The green jersied five has never let up in its practice and will be in top-notch form when it steps on the floor for battle tonight. Most of the Casey players have been on the floor regularly since the last regular game playing with other teams.

The regular line-ups of both teams will be pitted against each other.

The board of control of the league has engaged Elmer Carroll of Scottsdale as referee. The official is a well-known athlete having excelled in both football and basketball during his college career. He developed a champion football team at Greensburg last fall and has been playing a leading game with Class A basketball teams during the winter. No better selection for the championship series could have been made.

There will be no preliminary game tonight. There is no change in the price of admission. It is expected the hall will be crowded to capacity this evening.

Frat Reserves Are Annihilated by M. E. Aggregation, 62-26

With the possibility of winning the "X" League championship by defeating the Union Frat Reserves the Methodist Episcopal team last night sped up to a terrific pace and easily defeated the purple and gold outfit 62-26. The Reserves showed the poorest form of the season and were utterly unable to locate the basket with any consistency.

The Methodists meet the Fayette Baptists Thursday and then on next Tuesday play the same team in a postponed game. At the same time the Frat Reserves play the Baptists and it is not altogether possible to tell just yet who will come out ahead.

Baseball Club of Everson has reorganized for this season with exchange to new players and is in hopes of having one of the leading clubs in Fayette and Westmoreland counties. The P. A. K. has selected players with a 35-mile radius of Everson, having now 32 candidates to try out for the team of which 10 will be selected. The pitching staff has already been picked consisting of leading pitchers in this country.

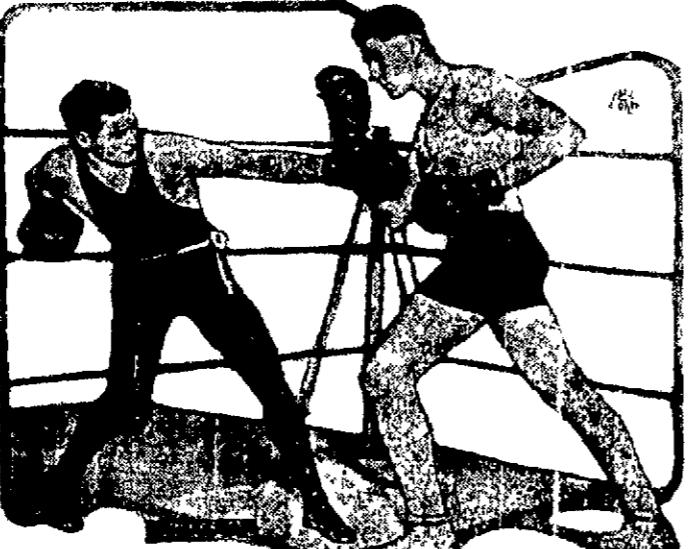

Just as soon as the weather permits the P. A. K.'s will begin practice and will be ready to open the season on May 6. Any first-class team wishing games with the P. A. K.'s writes to P. A. K. Baseball Club Box 266, Everson Pa.

WILL JACK DEMPSEY MANAGE NEXT HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION PUGILIST

Evidently Jack Dempsey is getting tired of waiting for some heavyweight to come along and take the championship away from him and rumor has it that he is quietly training a young western athlete to take on all the heavyweight aspirants so as to save the trouble. Dempsey has devoted considerable time to squaring with Ralph Smith who is only twenty-one years old and six feet seven inches tall. Smith is the champion heavyweight of the Los Angeles Athletic club and all the members of that club are wild over him.

The Kalford Cloud Busters of Poplar Grove, a second Poplar Grove Kalford outfit was organized last night. Some mighty big bull players are included in this aggregation and the team is now ready to schedule games. Harry Stillwagon is the manager and Frank Swink is captain. Games may be a ringed by getting in touch with Arthur Phantek at The Courier Annex, those on the team are Harry Langhry, John Dunaway, Dale Miller, Frank Doppelhofer, George Smith, Arthur Phantek, Frank Bosley, Frank Swink and Joe Shindle.

Friends are inquiring about the Dutch Bottom Lorain baseball team. The organization has not yet been effected.

With a few days being one closer to the opening of the baseball season fans are getting hungry for an opportunity to see the Coke Independents in action. Mennoies of the group played by the team is the season closed list yet still lingers in the minds of the dimmed sport followers.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad expects to put a strong outfit in the Y.M.C.A. League this summer.

The basketball season will not go beyond next week.

The Carter-King flight booked for Shreve Hall on Saturday, April 15 looks promising. Before the show of the Fayette Athletic Club were stopped many fans had expressed a desire to see these two men mix it up.

Tim Hurst Had Cure To Shorten Contests

Years ago when the use of the spitball sprang into prominence, major league baseball games were greatly delayed by the extra time used by the pitchers in getting the ball ready to deliver. President Ban Johnson of the American league wrote all his umpires asking suggestions as to how the game could be shortened.

All agreed that only the entire elimination of the spitball would actually shorten the game.

The Hurst who was the jester of the staff wrote to effect, and added a postscript to his letter which read:

"If you are really in earnest about shortening the games Ban why not try seven innings?"

VERNON STARS ARE FAST

If speed in the 100 yard dash counts, then Billie Binkirk's Vernon team should be fast. Vernon Binkirk, Harry O'Brien, Nelson Hawks and Pete Schneider all can do the hundred in ten seconds—and Binkirk is less of course. Billie running 100 yards and stability a bit are two different things. Binkirk's record in high school days was nine and four-tenths seconds for the 100, while O'Brien another high school recruit did his hundred in ten flat.

SAYS "SLIM" HARRIS IS MACARONI MODEL

Athletic Twirler So Thin He Doesn't Cast a Shadow.

Inability to Handle Bunts Ruined Effectiveness of Tall Pitcher and Caused Exchange of Quite Garbo's Report.

All the humor of baseball isn't confined to the ball but in any means. A lot of snappy hits in a game some of them mighty safeistic and caused by random "Slim" Harris of the Athletes who is quite a pitcher despite his physique was the victim of a foul one right over the plate from a St. Louis fan last summer.

For five or six inches Harris who is about 6 feet 6 and so thin he doesn't cast a shadow, was young after bunt.

fully. If Harris has a weakness it is in handling bunts, not his stuff because he has great speed and a fine curve. Unable to make any headway against his pitching the Browns started to bunt and get away with it. Inability to handle the bunts forced Harris and ruined his effectiveness. The Browns began to hit. Shortly afterward Harris at the bottom of Marquette Mack was on his way to the showers.

As he was entering the St. Louis dugout some fan shouted: "You certainly are having a tough time this summer, Harris. How do you manage to make a living in the winter?"

Before Harris had a chance to reply if he had such an interest some one shouted:

"The big wif is a model in a macaroni factory."

The Jewett Is Coming

ONE WEEK FROM NOW the new Jewett light six will be on exhibition in our showrooms and we shall be prepared to accept orders for immediate or very early delivery.

We make this preliminary announcement so that every local motorist may plan to see this remarkable car and arrange for a demonstration early in the week.

Up to now the Jewett has been displayed only at private exhibitions. But good news—important news—cannot be suppressed. That is why thousands of people are waiting for this car with an eagerness that is quite without precedent.

The word has gone forth that the Jewett is an astounding achievement in motor car value—a fine, high-powered six at a price that is little less than sensational. Though incomplete, that description fits the car with absolute accuracy.

What the public does not know is this: The Jewett is a very comfortable-passenger car with superbly beautiful body lines and every appointment that a critical man

HOWITZER WINS IN ROUGH GAME WITH CAPSTAN

Contest at Times Resembles Football Scrimmage;
Score Is 40-21.

COUNCIL THURSDAY NIGHT

SOUTH CONNELLSVILLE, April 5.—The Howitzer basketball team decisively defeated Capstan last evening on the Capstan floor by the score of 40-21. The game was rough from the start to the finish and in the last quarter the contest looked more like a football scrimmage than a basketball game, the players doing everything but calling signals.

It was the last game this season for the Capstan team on the Capstan floor and the fans that attended it sure got their money's worth. The first half ended 25-10, while in the last half Capstan scored 11 points and the Howitzers scored only 12.

In the preliminary game the Medical Detachment, better known as the "pill-rollers," was decisively defeated by the Capstan Juniors, 16-23.

The Juniors won the game in the first half, securing a big lead, but were outscored by the "pill-rollers" in the last half.

Tonnado was the heavy score for the Medical Detachment, with nine field goals, while Fisher and Gardner each scored six apiece for Capstan.

Jacobs Creek M. E. Church, Scottsdale, to Have Special Service

SCOTTDALE, April 5.—The Young Ladies' and Young Men's classes of Jacobs Creek Methodist Episcopal Church, just south of town, the oldest mother church of Methodism in Western Pennsylvania, are preparing for a special service of story and song, entitled, "Probable Sons," to be held Sunday evening.

They expect to be assisted by soloists from neighboring churches and oratoria.

The story deals with the life of a child. The old story of the prodigal son is here retold with added tenderness. The songs are of a good gospel hymn grade and have all been written especially for this service, so that they become a part of the story. The service will be instructional and strongly devotional. A general invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Miners Ask Shorter Day to Force More Regular Employment

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 5—Miners demands for a six-hour day and a five-day week, issues involving the national coal strike, were described by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers. In continuing his testimony Tuesday before a House committee, as largely a move to force regularity of employment.

"Men employed by the day," he said, would receive the same wages they are now getting and put in less time, but the miners who dig coal would be paid as they are now for the number of tons of coal they produce.

Representative Black, Democrat, Texas, calculated that if the five-day six-hour demand was granted, "the miners would pay $24,000,000 additional for the same amount of coal they are now getting each year."

ALVERTON, April 5—John Grimm and Russell Brigo spent Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. Rachel Grimm.

"Young Game Ted," to be given April 27 in the Scottdale Theatre. The juniors are thinking of presenting the play two nights, one night at a Mount Pleasant theatre. Although no definite action has been taken, it will be decided later whether it would be advisable or not. The play is an exceptionally good one, and no doubt will exceed all other junior plays.

The senior class will not publish a "re-echo" book this year. The book was published by the senior class of former years and was introduced into the school by Professor C. B. Murray.

One Solid Year of Achievement

Republican Administration's Program of Construction Being Fulfilled

Congress Is Industrious

Record of Accomplishment Not Exceeded in Annals of Legislation

(By Rep. Simeon D. Fess (Ohio), Chairman Republican Congressional Committee)

The World War bequeathed to the United States in common with every other nation gigantic debts, tremendous expenditures, burdensome taxes, disjoined economic conditions and general unrest. No previous administration since the establishment of our Government came into power with greater domestic problems demanding solution at its hands than confronted the Republican administration on March 4, 1921.

Immediately upon the inauguration of the President and his call of the special session of the Congress a program of rehabilitation was outlined and work immediately commenced to consummate it. Undesirable immigration was flooding the country. This increased unemployment rendered more difficult a solution of our industrial problems while the character of many of the immigrants was a menace to our social and political institutions. To protect American labor and American institutions against this invasion a law was enacted limiting further immigration to but three per cent of the nationals already in America.

The first necessary step toward economic readjustment was necessarily reduction of expenses and balancing of the budget. One of the earliest measures enacted by the Republican Congress was the budget law. The previous Republican Congress had enacted a budget law, but it was vetoed by President Wilson. The law went into effect July 1, 1921 in time to apply to the fiscal year beginning on the same date. Whatever economies have been effected by reason of the Budget Bureau since that time are to be credited to the early action of the Republican Congress in putting the law on the books which created the Budget Bureau and made its operation possible.

The agricultural industry of the country was suffering in a degree which has never been equalled in its history. This important industry, which directly affects one third of our population and indirectly affects every industrial, commercial and financial activity, was facing bankruptcy. In order to assist the farmer in this period of economic distress the Republican Congress enacted an elaborate program of agricultural rehabilitation. This program of constructive legislation in behalf of the American farmer is without parallel in the annals of American legislation. The substantial effects of this legislative program are now apparent on every hand.

Notwithstanding the Republican Congress elected in 1918 and assembled in special session in 1919 had appropriated hundreds of millions for ex-service men, the administration of these funds by the various executive agencies controlled by the Democrats had been such that the ex-service men had received a minimum of benefit from the funds. A large part of this was due to lack of coordination and co-operation of the various bureaus. One of the greatest pieces of constructive legislation of the Republican Congress was the consolidation of the various agencies dealing with the ex-service men under the one head of the Veterans Bureau. This assures expedition as well as fair and adequate treatment of our disabled ex-service men.

In addition to this consolidation and reorganization additional billions were appropriated for the use of the Bureau. American ex-service men of the World War have been better treated at the hands of the Republican Congress than the ex-service men of any previous war in American history and better treated than the ex-service men of any other nation engaged in the World War. And the end is not yet.

As an aid to the agricultural section and as an antidote to the unemployment situation the Congress passed at $75,000,000 appropriation bill for the construction and maintenance of improved highways, which sum will be doubled when the provisions of the bill are complied with by States putting up an equal sum of money.

Among the numerous constructive and relief measures the Maternity Bill was enacted in response to the demand

IN DANCE FROCKS

Constant Demand for the Decorative Little Gowns.

Paris Has Run on Orchid and Petunia Tints—Dazzling Colors Have Prominence.

On the Riviera—as elsewhere—wishes a Paris frock in crepe or taffeta are in constant demand; the little gown suitable for dance tunes, which in this case, a few years ago would have costed well $100 & a song. The frock is a delicate pink with the skirt raised in flounces of black waxed flowers, with lace edging down the front.

In Austin, at st. Louis, the frock is a delicate pink with the skirt raised in flounces of black waxed flowers, with lace edging down the front. The number in which it appears is $100. The frock is the most popular thing. The uneven hem which is off at the height of the popularity, was in evidence and the long white taffeta was sold. By the introduction of a sleepy white lace used the figure

Dance Frock of Petunia Lace and Charnouse With Clusters of Black Waxed Flowers

This dress was absolutely sleeveless and the corsage was nothing of trim ming.

This particular set had taken root. One sees it exploited in the very best showrooms. In fact, a tattered corsage would look old fashioned nowadays.

There is a run on the old and primitive. Certain famous dressmakers are trying to make very brilliant allover crepe colors fashionable, but the majority of the sensible women prefer the subtle shades of pale pink, petunia blue, lemon yellow and so on. I have lately seen some wonderful sets that will have more than a dash of pink in their composition and a certain pale blue which looks like tropes under a strong light.

FASHION NOTES OF INTEREST

Light wool crepe cloth continues to be popular in utility frocks for children.

Hat pins have pendants of Jade or pearl. Also mink may have hat pins and earrings to match.

Informal evening frocks for summer time to be sparkling affairs of crepe decorated with beads.

Appliqued motifs and heavy embroidery continue to be the popular trimmings for all cotton and wool fabric dresses for children.

White and black and high shades share honors for spring and summer. Those of the spot type having a decided tint in the bright red or green will be exceedingly popular and there are a number of silks to be had.

While the still bluer chintz type of dress certain is a favorite there are also many that feature a wavy line. The very low wavy line is most frequently seen, but the frock that is gathered and belted in at or near the natural waistline is not at all unusual.

White gowns of a more formal type are eliminated in a style seem to be popular and are made along straight lines with perhaps one slight drapery at the hip, which is caught in at the waist and finished in a long spray of flowers. Many of these dresses have trains.

Spring Wardrobe. A sturdy spring wardrobe should in effect be a dress and for the early days of the season kitchen is suggested for trimming according to the designer. Black linoleum cloth with a capitan with colored rope de chine is small or amply the kitchener can be made entirely of crepe de chine crepe full width with a broad cloth drawstring tie on the exterior. Inserted side a tons give the effect of a panel 1 ft. 6 in. Lower edge about two yards.

ELEANOR H. PORTER

She told him she was lonely, too, and that she was very glad to have him for a friend; and he said he prized her friendship above everything else in the world. And he looks at her, and follows her around the room with his eyes; and she blushed up real pink and pretty lots of times when he comes into the room.

Now, if that isn't making love to each other, I don't know what is. The sure he's going to propose. Oh, I'm so excited!

Oh, yes, I know if he does propose and she says yes, he'll be my new father. I understand that. And, of course, I can't help wondering how I'll like it. Sometimes I think I won't like it at all. Sometimes I almost catch myself wishing that I didn't have to have any new father or mother. I'd never had a new mother, anyway, and I wouldn't need a new father if my father-by-order-of-the-court would be as nice as he was there two or three times in the observatory.

But, there! After all, I must remember that I'm not the one that's doing the choosing. It's Mother. And if she wants the violinist I mustn't have anything to say. Besides, I really like him very much, anyway. He's the best of the lot. I'm sure of that. And that's something! And then, of course, I'm glad to have something to make this a love story, and best of all I would be glad to have Mother stop being divorced, anyway.

Mr. Barlow doesn't come here any more, I guess. Anyway, I haven't seen him here once since I came back; and I haven't heard anybody mention his name.

Quite a lot of the others are here, and there are some new ones. But the violinist is here most, and Mother seems to be put with him most to please. That's why I say I think it's the violinist.

I haven't heard from Father.

Now, just my writing that down that way shows that I expected to hear from him, though I don't really see why I should, either. Of course, he never has written to me, and, of course, I understand that I'm nothing but his daughter by order of the court. Still, some way, I did think maybe he'd write, we just a little bit of a note in answer to mine—my bread-and-butter letter, I mean; for, of course, Mother had me write that to him as soon as I got here.

But he hasn't.

I wonder how he's getting along, and if he misses me any. But of course, he doesn't do that. If I was a star, now!

TWO DAYS AFTER THANKSGIVING

The violinist has got a rival. I'm sure he has. It's Mr. Easterbrook. He's old—much as forty—and bald-headed and fat, and has got lots of money. And he's a very estimable man. (I heard Aunt Hattie say that.) He's awfully jolly, and I like him. He brings me the loveliest boxes of candy, and calls me Puss. (I don't like that particularly. I'd prefer him to call me Miss Anderson.) He's not nearly so cool-looking as the violinist. The violinist is lots more thrilling, but I shouldn't wonder if Mr. Easterbrook was more comfortable to live with.

The violinist is the kind of a man that makes you want to sit up and take notice, and have your hair and finger nails and shoes just right; but with Mr. Easterbrook you wouldn't mind a bit sitting in a big chair before the fire with a pair of old slippers on, if your feet were tired.

Mr. Easterbrook doesn't care for music. He's a broker. He looks awfully bored when the violinist is playing, and he sits with his watch-chain and clears his throat very loudly just before he speaks every time. His automobile is bigger and handsomer than the violinist's. (Aunt Hattie says the violinist's automobile is a hired one.) And Mr. Easterbrook's answer to that he sends to another is that he sends to another, and lots more of them, than the violinist's. Aunt Hattie has noticed that, too, in fact. I guess there isn't anything about Mr. Easterbrook that she doesn't notice.

Aunt Hattie likes Mr. Easterbrook lots better than she does the violinist. I heard her talking to Mother one day.

ONE WEEK LATER

Well, I guess now something has happened all right! And let me say right away that I don't like that violinist now, either, any better than Grandfather and Aunt Hattie. And it's not entirely because of what happened last night, either. It's been coming on for a while—ever since I first saw him talking to Theresa in the hall when she let him in one night a week ago.

Theresa is awfully pretty, and I guess he thinks so. Anyhow, I heard him telling her so in the hall, and she laughed and blushed and looked sideways at him. Then they saw me, and he stiffened up and said, very proper and dignified, "Kindly hand my card to Mrs. Anderson." And Theresa said, "Yes, sir." And she was very proper and dignified, too.

Well, four days ago I saw them again. He tried to put his arm around her that time, and the very next day he tried to kiss her, and after a minute she let him. More than once, too. And last night I heard him tell her she was the dearest girl in the world, and he'd be perfectly happy if he could only marry her.

Well, you can imagine how I felt, when I thought all the time he was Mother who was coming to see! And now to find out that it was Theresa he wanted all the time, and he was only seeing her to see Mother so he could see Theresa!

At first, I was angry—just plain angry; and I was frightened, too, for I couldn't help worrying about Mother, for fear she would find out, you know, when she found out that it was Theresa that he cared for, after all. I remembered what a lot Mrs. Hattie had been with him, and the pretty dressed and hats she'd put on for him, and all that. And I thought how she'd broken engagements with Mr. Easterbrook to go with him and it made me angry all over again. And I thought how mean it was of him to use poor Mother as a kind of shield to hide his courting of Theresa! I was angry, too, to have my love story all spoiled, when I was getting along so beautifully with Mother and the violinist.

I'm feeling better now. I've been thinking it over. I don't believe Mother's going to care so very much. I don't believe she'd want a man that would pretend to come courting her, when all the while he was really courting the hired girl—I mean him. Besides, there's Mr. Easterbrook left (and one or two others that I haven't said much about), so I didn't think they had much chance. And so far as the love story for me, I'm concerned, that isn't spoilt, after all, for it will be ever so much more exciting to have the violinist fall in love with Theresa than with Mother, for, of course, Theresa isn't in the same station of life at all, and that makes it a mess-all since. (I don't remember exactly what the word is, but I know it means an al-

Workmen's Compensation Law and Labor Situation in Pennsylvania

"From January 1, 1916, until March 1, 1922, 1,265,914 accidents have been reported which represent the tremendous human toll that we are paying as a price for Pennsylvania's industrial greatness," said George A. Mackay, chairman of the Workmen's Compensation Board in its address before the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce. "During that time 25,159 men have been deducted from our manpower by death caused by accident in employment, while 3,187 men have been rendered permanently disabled."

"We have compensated and paid to widows almost $1,000,000 for the purpose of paying off mortgages on the home in order to maintain a home in which to rear the children of fathers lost by accident in the course of employment."

"We have also established a bureau of rehabilitation and given aid to those who have been permanently put out of their occupations by accident, an opportunity to learn to coordinate brain and body in some new avocation in order that they may compete with normal men in the various crafts of the world. This work as a matter of suggestion of efficiency and economy, has been carried on with a total of 100 employees, two-thirds of whom are women."

"I am conceive of no more difficult situation in which to place a man than that in which the members of the Workmen's Compensation Board found themselves at the time of their original appointment. Our courts since the days of the proprietary have followed precedent. Our lawyers were schooled in that practice. Our business men had accustomed themselves to the old ideas. Industrial Pennsylvania had progressed by leaps and bounds. The mighty undertakings of colonial days had so wonderfully developed that our state had become the workshop of the world. Our 3,500,000 wage earners busied themselves in this great Keystone State, while 200,000 employees, with the courage of their convictions, invested their money in enterprises and gave these millions the opportunity to work and live, and yet there was great social and industrial waste incident to the cost to our court proceedings to determine the relative rights of these two groups."

"Misunderstandings, heartburnings and mislabeled were developed by the archaic method of dealing with injured employees. Then the public conscience was aroused and a new light was translated into a living statute. The Compensation Board was sent out to carry this new gospel of humanity to our people."

"Employers were mistrustful, believing it was some socialist propaganda calculated to take money from one man and give it to another without due process of law, while the millions of employees of the state could not believe that, at last, some real justice had been done them."

At the Theatres:*THE SOISSON.

"WEDDING BELLS," one of Constance Talmadge's latest First National pictures, is being shown today at this theatre as the leading picture. Aside from the comedy situations which have been very well handled, "Wedding Bells" leaves distinct impression on the audience because of the fact that it presents Miss Talmadge in a role that has possibilities for delightful bits of the more serious brand of acting—something that always makes the comedy situations which follow stand out with greater sharpness.

The story has to do with Rosalie Wayne, a wealthy girl who defies convention and spends the summer at a Palm Beach hotel with no chaperon other than her maid and her poodle. It is the latter that starts the plot rolling. The gentleman in the case is Reginald Carter, which part is very well handled by Harrison Ford.

Reggie is fascinated by Rosalie's beautiful long hair. So far as Reggie knew, his marriage to Rosalie was entirely due to her beautiful hair. The marriage lasted two days, for at the end of that time, Rosalie bobbed her beautiful hair and Reggie caught measles.

The many amusing situations in Salsbury Field's original stage play have been preserved by Chey Withey, as director, in turning out a highly creditable production. Among others in the cast are Emily Chichester, Ida Darling, James Harrison, William Rosselle, Polly Yann, Dallas Welford, and Frank Honda.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday Charles Ray will be seen in "Midnight Bell."

THE PARAMOUNT.

"EDEN AND RETURN," the feature picture today and tomorrow, presents Doris May in the stellar role.

"Eden and Return" sizzles with fun from the outset. Most of it is due to Miss May. Her comic possibilities are developing with each succeeding production in which she appears and it is already obvious to those who have followed the progress of this vivacious little artist that R-C Pictures have captured one of the best bets in the realm of the cinema.

Adapted from the successful stage play of the same title by Ralph E. Renard, "Eden and Return" has all the sure-fire ingredients that make high grade entertainment on the screen. Mr. Stromberg and Director Selter have attended to the production and with the utmost good taste and technical skill.

The story has to do with the difficulties a dashing little sub-doch encounters when her wealthy father demands that she get married at once and picks three gay young blades, from among whom she is ordered to make her choice.

Miss May as Betty Baylock, has no intention of obeying, however. She picks a man, to be sure, but he is not one of the three chosen by her father. This develops all manner of fun and it keeps up until the final fadeout.

THE ORPHEUM.

"FORBIDDEN FRUIT"—Cecil B. De Mille's great production which has proven to be a rare treat to movie fans, is the feature picture today. In place of relating the history of the original Garden of Eden vamp, Jeanne MacPherson has told the story of a modern domestic drudge whose beauty and goodness create a fairy Godmother for her and who is sought for by her Prince Charming after she has fled from the palace. Aside from an elaborate and beautiful visualization of the old Cinderella legend which runs through the tale like a red motif in a Wagner opera, it would be difficult to build a more clean cut and unhampered tale. Most of the incidents are easy of belief and there is a fine display of showmanship all through the picture. The human interest is compounded of the most popular ingredients. The heroine of "Forbidden Fruit" never tries to cheat herself by juggling with right and wrong. Agnes Ayres is in the role of Mary Muddock, an actress of definite method and decided talent and refreshingly natural in all that she does. Forrest Stanley plays opposite Miss Ayres.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday "The Jackkins" will be shown.
